

BREAKOUT SESSION ONE

Citizen of Heaven - Lead by Anlaura Clark

The Bible tells us that we are citizens of heaven. What does that really mean? And how should we live in response to that fact? Come and hear how every interaction can be the seed of a Gospel impact.

Keeping Sane When the World Seems Crazy - Lead by Bishop and Tamra Helsley

In a world full of people and media clamoring for our attention, mounting stress and responsibilities, and a rapidly changing world, trying to maintain our sanity can feel like an overwhelming task. But, God has gifted us with some simple and practical tools that we can use to keep us anchored and safe in stormy seas.

Who Is God? (A Look at the Trinity) - Lead by Ali Shaw

Misconceptions and misunderstandings about who God is abound. Growing in our understanding of the Trinity is helpful as we communicate the Gospel to others, disciple women in our churches, and glorify God in our own practice of faith and worship.

King David - Lead by Annie Waneck

Who was King David? What does God's Word say about him? And just what can we learn from the life of this ancient Jewish King? Come, join this class where we'll discover more about this "man after God's own heart."

When Life Doesn't Turn Out How You Expected - Lead by April Holmes

Just as Saul's life was radically changed to become the Apostle Paul, so our lives may be radically changed when we submit to God. Life with God isn't always easy or pretty, but it is joyous and beautiful as we grow closer to Him.

BREAKOUT SESSION TWO

Citizen of Heaven - Lead by Anlaura Clark (same description as breakout session one)

When Life Doesn't Turn Out How You Expected - Lead by April Holmes (same description as breakout session one)

Keeping Sane When the World Seems Crazy - Lead by Bishop and Tamra Helsley (same description as breakout session one)

Resting in God's Word - Lead by Annie Waneck

God's Word is living and active, and a valuable and rich treasure. We should delight in meditating on His words. Come join this class for a training on reflecting on Scripture.

Angelology 101 - Lead by Ali Shaw

For centuries, people have wondered about angels, created stories about them, and have even encountered them. But what does God's Word say about angels? What are they? What's their purpose? In this introductory class, we'll learn some things that the Bible has to say about these interesting beings.