LOOK BACK:

Point: All are invited. Invite someone.

- Share what you did this past week to demonstrate God’s love, declare the good news, and/or disciple someone.

Question: Who is the most important person at Calvary on Sunday morning? How would you answer that if the AC wasn’t working and the toilet wouldn’t flush on a 105° day?

LOOK UP: Watch this week’s video on the 4G web page.

Recap: We might sometimes wonder, “Why would I be considered invaluable?” Well, because beginning with the first people, God made man in His image and gave us dominion over the earth. We are His representatives here and as such carry His invaluable-ness. Even though we became separated from Him through our sin, we can be reunited through His Son, reclaiming our inheritance and place of dominion. But we were never designed to do it alone.

When we choose to place our faith in Jesus, we become a member of the body of Christ and workers in the family business. The past is gone, and the future is bright. But we can still use the past lessons learned to help others move to their new future. We are part of a team and we each have positions/parts to play. As a team player, it’s not so much about your ability, it’s about your availability.

LOOK IN: Discussion

- Make a list of all the different “body parts” needed at Calvary. (Use an “Interested In Serving” card for hints.)
- What are currently some missing parts or parts needing help? Where is the body not as strong as it could or should be?
- How could your group fill the gap?

LOOK FORWARD: Application

Point: If we all do our part, think what is possible!

If The Body Of Christ Only Knew What The Body Of Christ Knew...

Someone new to Calvary heard this week’s sermon. They ask you, “What role(s)/part(s) do you play at Calvary? How does it serve the body of Christ?” Write your response here:

Not happy with your response? What is your plan to change it?
